

RESOLUTION:

Naming Thornton Creek Park Six "Alice Bryant Peace Park on Thornton Creek"

Whereas Alice Franklin Bryant was a Seattle activist for peace, justice, and a healthy environment, who passed away in 1977; and

Whereas Ruth Williams, the long-time neighborhood park steward for Thornton Creek Park Six, is endeavoring to have said park named "Alice Bryant Peace Park at Thornton Creek"; and

Whereas naming a beautiful, urban, natural area after a person who devoted her life to creating a more peaceful, beautiful world is a very appropriate honor; and

Whereas honoring a peaceful person in a peaceful place directly across the street from a large and growing shopping center invites the public to come and take refuge from the pressures of daily life;

Therefore, Be It Resolved that we, the 46th District Democrats, endorse and support the effort to name Park Six: "Alice Bryant Peace Park on Thornton Creek";

Passed by the 46th District Democrats on the 15th day of January, 2009.
